Private Moments: Selections from the Guilford College Art Gallery
Permanent Collection
July 3 - October 1, 1998
At the Center for Creative Leadership, One Leadership Place, Greensboro, NC

The exhibition contains works by more than 40 artists, primarily 20th century Americans. Regional artists James C. McMillan, Susan Mullally Clark, and David Spear are represented. Other works include a wood engraving by Winslow Homer, prints by Raphael Soyer and Peggy Bacon, and paintings by Abraham Rattner. Figurative works of art that consider ways in which artists depict men and women in moments of solitude, or intimate conversation, were selected for "Private Moments" by Director/Curator Terry Hammond.
