Guilford College Art Gallery will present recent works by Art Department faculty in a biennial exhibition, August 20 - October 10, 2007. A reception for the artists will be held Friday, September 7, from 5:00-7:00 p.m. in the gallery, located in Hege Library on the Guilford campus. The reception is free, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

The artists will discuss their work and creative process in an Art Faculty Forum on Wednesday, September 26, at 7:00 p.m. This event is free and open to the public. "The exhibition and related programs provide an ideal opportunity for people to see the strengths of the department, discover new instructors, and view media they might not have known they could study in our art department," says Terry Hammond, director & curator of the Art Gallery. "This exhibit is always an eclectic mix of ideas and interests; it is a great celebration of all the talent and diversity the Guilford Art Department exemplifies."

Faculty exhibitors include Adele Wayman, Roy Nydorf, David Newton, Heea Crownfield, Maia Dery, Charles Tefft, Todd Drake and Rob Igoe.
